Subd. 5: An Employee returning from child care leave of twelve weeks or less shall be entitled to the former position or one of comparable duties, hours and pay. An Employee returning from a child care leave longer than twelve weeks shall be re-employed in a position for which they are qualified.

Subd. 6: Failure of the Employee to return without an acceptable excuse pursuant to the date determined under this Section shall constitute grounds for termination unless the Employer and the Employee mutually agree to an extension in the leave.

Section 10 - Child Care Leave, continued

Subd. 7: The applicable periods of probation for Employees as set forth in this Agreement are intended to be periods of actual service enabling the Employer to have opportunity to evaluate an Employee's performance. ARTICLE VII
SENIORITY

Section 1 - Probationary Period

All new Employees shall serve a one-year probationary period during which time the Employee may be discharged by the Employer without cause and without the same causing breach of this Agreement or constituting a grievance hereunder. Upon completion of the probationary period, seniority shall date back to the beginning of the probationary period. An Employee changing classification shall serve a 90-day probationary period in the new classification, during which time the Employer may return the Employee to the original classification without prejudice to seniority rights in the original classification.

Section 2 - Layoff and Recall

Subd. 1: In reducing personnel for lack of work or job elimination, a non-probationary Employee will be given a three week notice from Employer before any lay-off action. The last person hired in the classification being reduced shall be the first laid off, and in turn the last recalled, provided the individual possesses the qualifications to perform the remaining work.

Subd. 2: In the event a non-probationary Employee's job is eliminated, the Employer shall reassign the Employee to a position held by the least senior employee with at least the same number of hours, same number of weeks and within the same classification band and grade. If the Employee is the least senior Employee within that classification band and grade, the Employer shall reassign the Employee to a position held by the least senior Employee with at least the same number of hours, same number of weeks and within the next lowest classification band and grade.

For an Employee who has been displaced by a more senior Employee, the Employer then will have the option to reassign the displaced Employee to a position held by the least senior Employee with at least the same number of hours, same number of weeks and within the same classification band and grade. If the Employee is the least senior employee within that classification band and grade, the Employer shall reassign the Employee to a position held by the least senior Employee with at least the same number of hours, same number of weeks and within the next lowest classification band and grade.

Subd. 3: In the event a position is reduced 5 hours or more per week or 2 weeks (10 days) or more, a non-probationary Employee may consider this a displacement and invoke rights under said Article 7, Section 2. Employer shall reassign the Employee to a position held by the least senior employee with at least the same number of hours, same number of weeks and within the same classification band and grade. If the Employee is the least senior Employee within that classification band and grade, the Employee shall reassign the Employee to a position held by the least senior Employee with at least the same number of hours, same number of weeks and within the next lowest classification band and grade.

Subd. 4: Employees working in a lower level classification band and grade position shall not have the right to bump Employees working in a higher level classification band and grade position. Additionally, Employees shall not have the right to bump into positions with more hours per week or more weeks per year within the same classification band and grade position.

Subd. 5: In the event only one option is available to the Employer, the Employer shall award a displaced Employee a position for which they are qualified if their seniority is greater than that of the Employee being displaced. The least senior Employee without any options shall be laid off.

This procedure shall apply in accordance with the current position occupied by the Employee. Employees working in a lower level/band and grade position shall not have a right to bump employees working in a higher level/band and grade position. Classifications are ranked from high to low as follows:

Level	Band & Grade
Level VI	B-3-1
Level V	B-2-3
Level IV	B-2-2
Level III	B-2-1
Level II	A-1-3
Level I	A-1-2

Section 2 - Layoff and Recall, continued

Subd. 6: An Employee whose job has been eliminated or is otherwise displaced by another Employee and is moved to a lower classification shall have their wages frozen at the current wage they are receiving prior to any changes to their employee status. However, the comparable worth status of the Employee when transferred shall be that of the position to which they move for the purpose of determining any future rights, privileges, and/or benefits that may apply in accordance with this contract.

Subd. 7: In recalling Employees back to work after a layoff, the Employee must report to work within five (5) working days after the mailing of a notice by the Employer by certified mail to the last address appearing in the records of the Employer. This section does not apply in those cases where a layoff is due to a building being closed temporarily because of equipment breakdown, quarantine, loss of utility, or damages from natural or unnatural disasters. This section also does not apply to summer work or other similar temporary or seasonal positions as defined in PELRA, Minnesota Statutes Chapter 179A, as amended.

Section 3 - Vacancy Posting

When a regular job becomes open in any classification of work covered by this Agreement, a notice shall be posted for five (5) days during which time any Employee may apply. The Employer agrees that where qualifications are relatively equal, seniority shall govern. The Employer shall interview all qualified bargaining unit Employees. If no Employee possesses the necessary skill and ability to perform the position responsibilities, the Employer may fill the job with a new Employee or train a current Employee, at the option of the Employer.

Section 4 - Loss of Seniority Rights

An Employee shall lose all seniority rights for any one or more of the following reasons:

- A. Voluntary resignation;
- B. Discharge for just cause;
- C. Failure to report to work within seven (7) calendar days after mailing a notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, by the Employer to the last known address of the Employee appearing in the Employer records.
- D. Layoff for a continuous period of more than one (1) year; and
- E. Absence for three (3) consecutive working days without notice to the Employer.

Section 5 - Seniority Lists

Seniority lists shall be updated as Employee changes are made, and on July 1 of each fiscal year shall be provided to the president of the Union.

ARTICLE VIII

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

The primary intent of a supervisory evaluation process will be the personal and professional development of the Employee. A formal summative evaluation of work performed shall be formulated by the end of the first year for all new Employees and at least every other year for non-probationary Employees. In the off year of the evaluation cycle for non-probationary Employees, Employees shall submit to their supervisor goals via a goal setting process prescribed by the Employer. The Employer reserves the right to place non-probationary Employees on the probationary cycle of the formal summative evaluation process if it is determined necessary by the Employer.

Evaluations shall be conducted by the Employee's immediate supervisor, consistent with the standards of performance and in cooperation with the Superintendent's Designee. Whenever practical, such evaluation shall be discussed between the supervisor, the Superintendent's Designee and the Employee. A copy of said evaluation shall be made available to employee through its employment management system or forwarded to the Superintendent's Designee for placement in the Employee's personnel file.

ARTICLE IX

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All Employees are on probation for the first twelve (12) months of their employment and may be dismissed at any time within this period with one (1) week's notice, or for due cause, without any notice.

ARTICLE X

DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

Section 1 - Progressive Discipline and Representation

The Employer and Employee agree that discipline is to be used as a means of correcting improper job-related behavior. All official reprimands shall be served on the employee in writing within forty-eight (48) clock hours in consecutive Employer business dates from the time of the incident giving rise to reprimand. A copy of all reprimands, suspensions and dismissals shall be furnished to a

After the individual has been so informed, the file need not be disclosed to the Employee for six (6) months unless a dispute or action concerning its contents is pending. The Employee shall be provided copies of any material contained in their personnel file upon request. The cost of providing copies shall be borne by the Employee. Any dispute concerning the accuracy or completeness of the personnel file shall be subject to the grievance procedure.

Section 5 - Representation

Either party may order a transcript or recording of the hearing and shall pay the costs and fees of the arbitrator.
- H. Jurisdiction: The arbitrator shall have jurisdiction over disputes or disagreements relating to grievances properly before the arbitrator pursuant to the terms of this procedure. The jurisdiction of the arbitrator shall not extend to the proposed changes in terms and conditions of employment as defined herein and contained in this written agreement; nor shall an arbitrator have jurisdiction over any grievance which has not been submitted to arbitration in compliance with the term of the grievance and arbitration procedure as outlined herein; nor shall the jurisdiction of the arbitrator extend to matters of inherent managerial policy, which shall include but are not limited to such areas of discretion or policy as the functions and programs of the Employer, its overall budget, utilization of technology, the organizational structure, and the selection and direction and number of personnel.
